This dispatch is for Information Only. Destroy when it has served its purpose. 1. Application forms for the EAF are now available. These forms may be requested from headquarters through normal channels for employees who are interested in applying to the EAF for scholarship assistance on behalf of their dependent children for the academic year 1967-68. (Copies of forms forwarded in response to such a request will be accompanied by instructions governing their completion and transmission to headquarters.) The Board of Trustees plans to make the scholarship awards in the late spring, and applications must be completed and returned by 1 April 1967. 2. In addition to the general scholarship assistance referred to above, there are available a limited number of full tuition scholarships to the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. The donor who established these scholarships specified that preference be given to dependents of personnel of the D career service; however, employees of other career services are eligible to apply and should be encouraged to do so. In order to qualify for such scholarship assistance from the EAF, it is required that the student meet all the academic standards and entrance requirements prescribed by MIT and that he apply directly to MIT, not later than 16 January 1967, for enrollment and for scholarship assistance, such applications to be made without any reference to the Organization or the EAF. Concurrently with the student's making his application to MIT, the employee should forward to headquarters a completed "Application for Scholarship Assistance" form, a copy of which is attached. The supplemental documents which are called for at the top of the application form should not be forwarded; none of these documents is necessary when applying to the EAF for an MIT scholarship. The application should be forwarded

to headquarters as a separate cover attachment to a dispatch addressed to the Chief of the Area Division. The dispatch should state merely: "Application per paragraph 2, Book Dispatch 5846." (If a staff or career agent should wish to make application, he should not use the application form, but should rather prepare an application on plain paper, providing the information called for in a secure manner; using his pseudonym and giving only the first name of the dependent concerned; forwarding by separate cover, or if necessary omitting, any item which would serve to identify him.) Applications for an MIT scholarship must be received by the EAF prior to 1 February 1967.

3. The EAF is known to be connected with the Organization. Consequently, under no circumstances should an employee or his dependent refer to it outside the Organization. Neither should any papers forwarded from the field in connection with an application refer to it.
